

WORLD'S FAIR BONDS SOLD.

THREE MILLION DOLLARS TAKEN.

A NEW-YORK AND A BOSTON FIRM WILL DELEVER THE MONEY IN INSTALMENTS.

Chicago has sold $3,000,000 of its $5,000,000 World's Fair bonds, and the force of men now engaged at the Exposition grounds will be largely increased at once. The bonds were purchased by Blair & Co., No. 23 Wall-st., this city, and by Brewster, Cobb & Esterbrook of Boston. The $3,000,000 is to be delivered in three installments of $1,000,000 each, and the first instalment will be turned over to the World's Columbian Exposition Directory February 1, through the First National Bank of Chicago. The others will be delivered March 1 and April 1. The bonds bear 1 per cent interest, and the City of Chicago is the security.

Major Washburn and Controller May, of Chicago, came to New-York to complete the negotiations for the sale of the bonds. The bids for the bonds were received and opened at the American Exchange Bank yesterday. There were only three bids made, but by whom the third was made the World's Fair people declined to say. All the necessary papers were signed at the Holland House last evening, and the money will be forthcoming when wanted.

"These bonds which we have just sold," explained Major Washburn last evening, "were issued under an act of the Illinois Legislature and ratified by a vote of the people of Chicago. Subsequently the issuing of the bonds was authorized by the Common Council of Chicago, and the city is the security which the New-York and Boston firms get. We shall not sell the remaining $2,000,000 in bonds until we need the money, as it would be of no use to be paying interest on money which we could not use at present."

MEETINGS AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Rev. Milton S. Littlefield, of Union Theological Seminary, will speak in Association Hall to-morrow at 3 p.m. Young men are invited.

Dr. Metcalf to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 will begin a series of six free lectures before the members of the Hudson Methodist Episcopal Church, Washington Square, and continue as follows: Jan. 30, "The Essentials of Religion"; February 4, "The Anatomy of Temperance"; February 11, "The Public Schools and Their Enemies"; February 18, "What We Want"; If so, Why and How? February 25, "How to Abolish Poverty"; March 6, "The Genius of the English-Speaking Race."

The lecture this evening in the Cooper Union free course will be delivered by Dr. Daniel Brown on "The Industrial Problem."

Washington, Jan. 29.—The attention of John Dewitt Warner was to-day called to the articles in "The London Times" and "The Daily Telegraph."

"That is not true," said Mr. Warner, decisively, after reading the cable dispatch alluding to the purposed interview. "I have given out no such interview as that, and so far as I have seen or heard, the facts are not as suggested, though, of course, I do not know what may have occurred." This is the first intimation I have had that anything was definitely known on Saturday last as to Chitt's intention to apologize.

Colonel Ingersoll said in part: "Thomas Paine was the first to propose that the Government be of the people, by and for the people. He also advocated the divorce of Church and State. It is believed that unless we have received the full compensation of our rights, we must remain silent and wait for victory. (Applause.) But it seems to me that there would have been a law against murder, at any rate, in countries where a large part of the people object to being murdered. The people of Philadelphia, for instance, had a man named Blaum, who was a grain merchant. He was a grain merchant. The people said that they had that man shot, and he was buried in the ground, and were staying at No. 223 West Twentieth. They went out for a walk after dinner and were discovered. The trouble was patched up and they were quelled.

Thaddeus D. Wick made an introductory speech, explaining the history of this picture and the elements of Paine's character which it illustrated.

Monroe D. Conway, who is now engaged in writing the life of Paine, was the first speaker on the advertised programme. He told of the work of Paine in his busy and interesting life.

Late private cable advised the market unchanged at 100 to 101, with sufficient bid offering at 100 to 102 and 103, and offered at 101 to 102.

THE ADMINISTRATION WARMLY PRAISED.

A large number of Republicans were present at the first regular monthly meeting this year of the Republican organization of the XXII Assembly District which was held last night in Lenox Hall, Third-and-Seventy-second. Over 100 new members were enrolled, and the following resolution was passed with unanimous consent:

Resolved, That the able, dignified, patriotic and statesmanlike course pursued by President Hayes and Secretary Chase in the Civil Service Commission in relation to the troubles existing between the South and the Government, and the most heartily endorsed.

The motion taken by the Administration furnished unmistakable evidence that the sacred principles of the Republican party—the protection of our citizens both at home and abroad, and the maintenance of the honor and dignity of the Nation—will be unflinchingly maintained by us against the powers of the world.

James B. Angell made a stirring speech, in which he said that a great wrong had been committed by the Democrats at Albany, and that the people of the Empire State had no right to the patriotic and manly course to right it. But just as the conservative people generally of the Nation relied upon the Republican party to solve all great problems of politics, so did the people of the Empire State.

The lecture this evening in the Cooper Union free course will be delivered by Dr. Daniel Brown on "The Industrial Problem."

The Historical Society will meet at the library on Thursday evening, when Eugene S. Lewis will read a paper on "A Village Ranger of New-England."

A series of Sunday evening lectures to young men will be given in the Fourth Universalist Church, the Rev. Dr. O. H. Eaton, pastor, Fifteenth, and Forty-ninth, beginning at the time last night at the Lenox Library, and continuing to March 25 to the American Minister in China to-morrow morning at 11:30 a.m. The meeting will be held at No. 150 Fifth-ave., and will be open to all.

By request of the Young Men's Christian Association of Hudson, Robert Smith, the conversion gospel, will address a men's meeting in Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, Seventeenth, and One-hundred-and-twenty-ninth, to-morrow afternoon at 4:15 o'clock. A large attendance is looked for, as Gospel is an earnest worker and speaks and sings with feeling.

Alfred G. Nash, chaplain; Albert Nelson, secretary; John H. Gunner, John Earl, Charles C. Smith, Richard M. Hills and H. W. Thum.

MR. BAYARD ON THE CHILIAN TROUBLE.

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 29.—Ex-Senator Bayard, in a brief interview this morning, expressed his thoughts regarding the gravitation over the prospective amicable and honorable adjustment of the Chilian controversy.

"The note of Minister Pereda," said Mr. Bayard, "dated January 24 to the American Minister in China seems to me to leave nothing that can be reasonably or justly asked for by the people of the United States. It is frank, manly, self-respecting and explicit, and at the same time thoroughly respectful and even deferential to the United States. The same thing may be said of the note of Mr. Montt written in Washington on January 25 and addressed to the Secretary of State."

MOVEMENTS OF THE PHILADELPHIA.

It was the opinion among the officers of the Navy Yard yesterday that the arrival of the gunboat Concord at Balata really decided the destination of the Philadelphia. The Tribune stated on January 19 that Rear-Admiral Gherardi had sailed from Barbados with the flagship Philadelphia and the Concord for Montevideo. Since then more opposition has been made, and the gunboat has been sent to Gibraltar to intercept the Chilian cruiser Capitan Prat, after she should leave the coast of France. Within sight of the gunboat the Philadelphia, and the gunboat Concord, which has established a dead-line, beyond which no quarantined people may stay, and a guard patrols this line.

EXTRA TRAIN STOPPED AT MARE ISLAND.

Vallejo, Cal., Jan. 29.—The cruiser Charleston came off the stone dock at Mare Island Navy Yard this afternoon, and was hauled out into the stream. The monitor Comanche will be placed in dock to-morrow.

The annual reception of the De La Salle Union was held last evening in the hall of the De La Salle Institute. Many of the friends and relatives of the students were present, and every one enjoyed the entertainment.

Among those who helped to make the affair a success were and her half cleaned. Yesterday orders were received at this yard to discontinue all extra work.

ODDS AND ENDS OF POLITICS.

ENTERPRISING GERMAN REPUBLICANS.

HARMONIOUS PRIMARIES IN ALL THE DISTRICTS.

—THE NEW CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The Committee on Amendments to the Interstate Commerce Act submitted resolutions, which were adopted, asking that corporations as well as their agents and employees be made infallible; that reports and findings of the Commission shall have the force and effect of the reports of masters in chancery in Federal courts in case of subsequent judicial proceedings; that the Commission be empowered to employ competent and permanent counsel to represent them in any litigation they find necessary in the enforcement of the Interstate Commerce act and their decisions and orders under it.

A resolution was also adopted urging on the President the wisdom of filling vacancies on the Interstate Commerce Commission by the appointment of men belonging to the class of trained transporters or capable merchants or manufacturers. The Board then re-submitted the consideration of the resolution opposing the German Republicans to the Central Committee.

The German Republicans of New-York began their work for the campaign of 1892 last night by electing delegates from the twenty-four Assembly districts of the city to the Central Committee. A great deal of quiet and hard and earnest work has been going on among the Germans to increase the number of active workers and to improve and perfect the organization. The German Republicans do not intend to enter the field unprepared, and the zeal of such prominent men as Ferdinand Dreyer, Ferdinand Edtmann, Henry C. Doty and Rudolph Rubens has awakened more genuine interest than ever before among their countrymen. The primaries last night were all well attended, and the vote polled was a heavy one. The elections in all the districts were harmonious, and there were no contests.

The delegates as elected to the Central Committee from the different Assembly districts, were:

1st—Joseph Kriger, John Miller, William Leaman, Solomon Lewison, Jacob Geiger.

11th—George P. Karrer, Charles Zeller, G. Geiger, J. Wack, A. Rodler.

COLLEGE FRATERNITY MEN DINE.

ANNUAL REUNION OF DELTA UPSILON ALUMNI.

The annual dinner of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity of New-York City brought together about a hundred men at the St. Denis Hotel last night. Twenty-four out of the twenty-seven chapters of the fraternity had representatives at the dinner. Columbia had the largest delegation, the wearers of the "blue and white" numbering thirty-one.

The money to be used in making the Fraternal success is being handled judiciously. While it is not a great success, it is not a failure.
